PREFACE

INDIAN TECHNICAL & ECONOMIC COOPERATION (ITEC) PROGRAMME

The Indian Technical & Economic Cooperation (ITEC) Programme was instituted on 15 September 1964 as a bilateral cooperation programme of assistance of the Government of India with Partner Developing Countries. While conveying their decision to initiate the ITEC programme, the Cabinet noted, "A programme of technical and economic cooperation is essential for the development of our relations with the other developing countries on the basis of partnership and cooperation for mutual benefits. It would also be a concrete manifestation of our resolve to contribute to the evolution of world community based on the inter-dependence of all its members in the attainment of their common goal for promoting the social and economic well-being of their people."

The ITEC Programme has several components. Apart from organizing training courses in India, it also covers deputation of Indian experts abroad, study tours, gifting of equipment, study tours and feasibility studies/consultancy services. Besides, India extends humanitarian assistance like food grains, medicines and other items to countries for disaster relief and humanitarian situations. ITEC is a demand driven programme, cooperation extended under ITEC is usually in response to requests received from friendly countries and the commitments made by India to other countries.

Under the ITEC Programme, 161 partner countries from Asia, Africa, East Europe, Latin America, the Caribbean as well as Pacific and Small Island countries are invited to share the Indian developmental experience acquired over seven decades of India's existence as a free nation. The ITEC programme includes all capacity building extended by India under SCAAP (Special Commonwealth Assistance for Africa Programme) and TCS (Technical cooperation Scheme of Colombo Plan). ITEC resources have also been used for cooperation programmes conceived in regional and inter-regional context such as Economic Commission for Africa and Commonwealth Secretariat. In recent years, its activities have also been associated with regional and multilateral organisations and cooperation groupings like Association of South East Asian Nations (ASEAN), African Union (AU), Afro-Asian Rural Development Organisation (AARDO), Pan African Parliament, Caribbean Community (CARICOM), World Trade Organisation (WTO), Centre on Integrated Rural Development for Asia and Pacific (CIRDAP) and Indian Ocean Rim Association (IORA), Central American Integration System (SICA).

The utility and relevance of ITEC programme has been reflected in the ever increasing number of participants. In 2017-18, over 10,500 civilian scholarship slots have been offered under the ITEC Programmes. The courses span a broad spectrum of fields; customized training programmes are also conducted/scheduled at the specific request of partner countries. The courses under ITEC cover fields ranging from IT, Public Administration, Election Management, SME, Entrepreneurship, Rural Development, Parliamentary Affairs, and Renewable Energy, Election Management, Government Performance Management, Mid-Career Training of Civil Servants, Parliamentary Studies, Urban Infrastructure Management, Yoga, Archaeology, Fire Safety, Intellectual Property Management, Fertilizer Technology, Eye Care and Mid-career specialized training for Medical Practitioners. ITEC courses equip the participants with not just professional skills but also prepare them for an increasingly globalized world. More than 300 courses have been offered this year by over 70 institutions.

For deputation of Indian experts under ITEC, the process begins upon receipt of request from the partner country, indicating its specific requirements and confirming the responsibilities/obligations of the two sides. In recent years, Indian experts have been deputed in areas such as Information Technology, Auditing, Legal Affairs, Agriculture, Ayurveda, Public Administration, Telecommunication etc.

India assists ITEC partner countries in establishing useful infrastructure facilities with technology and skills appropriate to their resources and needs. A number of bilateral projects are undertaken, notably in the fields of archaeological conservation, Information Technology (IT) and Small and Medium Enterprises (SMEs).

For study tours in India, specific areas of interest are identified in consultation with the Indian Mission concerned and one-two week programme is arranged during which the delegates are taken to important institutions, training centres, and places of interest in different parts of India.

ITEC has created a large network of alumni across the continents who have become ITEC torch-bearers in their respective countries and, in the process, developed a powerful cultural bridge between India and the country concerned. ITEC alumni have carved a niche for themselves in polity, diplomacy, academia, governance and entrepreneurship. As a result of different activities under ITEC, there is now a visible and growing awareness among other countries about the competence of India as a provider of technical know-how and expertise. Over the years, these programmes have generated immense goodwill for the country.

To facilitate the application process for ITEC applicants a composite web portal is hosted at www.itecgoi.in. The ITEC portal has an aesthetically pleasing public access for easier dissemination of information about ITEC courses and associated institutes. It also offers an active interaction platform for participants, alumni, their alma-mater, Ministry of External Affairs and Indian Missions abroad. The ITEC alumni get a lifelong access to this portal, which provides a platform for networking through which they may remain in direct touch with Indian Missions, their alma mater and the Ministry. Indian Missions also celebrate 15 September as "ITEC day", where ITEC alumni are invited to share their experience about the training programmes as well as about their stay in India. ITEC also has a presence on popular social networking sites: Facebook (www.facebook.com/ITECnetwork) and Twitter (@ITECnetwork and @JS_ITEC).

ITEC is the flagship programme of the Indian Government's capacity building efforts. DPA-II Division of the Development Partnership Administration (DPA) in the Ministry of External Affairs is the nodal division for handling all capacity building programmes. The ITEC Programme is a visible symbol of India's role and contribution to South-South Cooperation. India remains a staunch proponent and practitioner of South-South Cooperation which constitutes a fundamental pillar of India's foreign policy and diplomacy.
